RIVER NEWS.

MAY ELECT SENATOR DURING THIS WEEK,

Use of Money in Nebraska Contest Predicted by an Agent of an Interested Corporation.

SENSATIONAL TURN OF OFFAIRS

Investigation Ordered by Legislature Likely to Cause Withdrawal of One or Two of the Candidates.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Omaha, Neb., Jan. 27 .- An influential agent of one of the railroads participating in the senatorial fight at Lincoln said today that the deadlock would be broken during this week, notwithstanding the claims of rival candidates that they had prepared for a siege. The agent who made this statement has been in the thickest of the fight since the opening of the Legislature. To a friend he said uniquivocally that soney was about to be used to decide the ssue between certain candidates, and that if the deadlock could not be broken any other way money would be used either to induce candidates to get off the track or upon members. However this may be, there is an air of expectancy at the headquarters of every candidate to-night.

It is possible that the interest in the outcome of the investigation order by both houses of the Legislature into the methods employed by senatorial candidates to gain supporters has caused the excitement, for it is known that some sensational teatimony is sure to be given. It is predicted that if proofs of certain transactions can be made to stick, one or two of the senatorial canto stick, one or two of the senatorial can-didates must withdraw from the race. It is a significant fact that a majority of both the House and Senate Investigating com-mittees, exclusive of Fusionists, are sup-porters of either Meikeljohn or Thompson. The former is said to be the preferred can-didate of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, and the latter is notoriously the Burlington candidate, a claim that is boast-ingly made.

Last week agents of the Missouri Pacific Last week agents of the Missouri Pacific Railway dipped into the fight, but their ultimate object is not yet disclosed. They occupy a part of the territory of the State which is known politically as Burlington territory, yet the Missouri Pacific interest has not always been friendly to the Burlington. The chances are that it will join the Northwestern as against the Burlington candidate.

ZINC MINES TO SHUT DOWN.

Curtailed Production Expected to Boost Prices-Lead Declined.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Joplin, Mo., Jan. 27 .- The zinc ore product is to be curtailed. There was a meeting Thursday night with that object in view and there were present producers representing 1,970 tons weekly output. Of this number the producers of 1,520 tons a week agreed to shut down their mines for four weeks or longer, and superintendents of Eastern companies, representing about 1,000 tons, reported that they expected their companies to instruct them to shut down.

It is claimed that 90 per cent of the zinc ore production will be stopped after February 2 for at least four weeks. In this case it will reduce the available stock nearly 20,000 tons. The movement is being inapgurated from the fact that of the product of 20,000 tons last year, 00,000 tons was a surplus over the home consumption, and as the exportation of metal caused prices to be demoralized, which reacted in disastrously low prices for zine ore, it is thought that the wisest policy for the beginning of this year is to wipe out the present reserve stock and prevent an accumulation in the future. As the supply is greater than the demand it is simply proposed to curtail the supply, and endeavor to maintain an equilibrium in the market price. It is claimed that 90 per cent of the zinc demand it is simply proposed to curtail the supply, and endeavor to maintain an equilibrium in the market price.

On account of metal being quoted in St. Louis at $1.85 per 100 pounds, tine ore has been forced so low that many operators have been forced to close down or run at a loss. Those who have mines that will produce ore at a profit, even on the present quotations, are leading in the movement to curtail the output, foreseeing still lower Load declined $1 a ton, the first break in price since September 1, 1999.

The shipment the past week was 345 tons of zinc and 44 tons of lead, at a decrease of $14,305, compared with the preceding week. Following are the sales in pounds from tracts of land owned or controlled by the companies of individuals named for the week ending January 25, 1801:

BLONG MAY JOIN WELLS'S FORCES.

Tinker Supporter Holds Conference With Harry B. Hawes at Jefferson Club.

Andrew Blong, one of Zach Tinker's principal adherents, spent an hour and a half yesterday afternoon in conference with Harry B. Hawes in the latter's private of-fice on the second floor in the Jefferson Club, and the rumor soon gained currency Rolla Wells for the Democratic nomination Blong was about to leave the Tinker ranks gave additional color to yesterday's occur-the theory that the coup promises to be successful, if it is not already practically successful, if it is not already practically so. What seems the most plausible is that the action of Thomas C. Hennings in abandoning the campaign for Given Campbell, after efforts had been made for a combine with the Tinker delegations, has led some of Mr. Tinker's friends to suppose that prospects may not be so favorable as at first expected in four wards.

In fact, it is generally stated that the refusal of Mr. Campbell to allow his name to appear at the head of the list of delegations and the subsequent strengthening of Mr. Wells's ranks by increases from among Mr. Campbell's friends and supporters has had a more or less demoralizing effect among some of Mr. Tinker's adherents. Some of the earnest promoters of Mr. Tinker's interests claim that his chances are as good as they ever were. There are evidences, nevertheless, that negotiations are in progress that will have a tendency to strengthen Mr. Wells's candidacy.

At the Noonan Headquarters.

At the Noonan Headquarters.

The Noonan headquarters in the Continental building were open yesterday afternoon and evening. E. A. Noonan was present for a few hours in the afternoon. Although many visitors called, the time was principally devoted to selecting a list of delegates from the different wards. The list is practically completed, and will soon be filed with the Board of Election Commissioners. Mr. Noonan states that the headquarters will be open every day until after the primaries, from 10 o'clock in the morning until midnight.

SERMON BY THE PRIMATE.

17,600 British Army Given to the Emperor William of Germany.

> London, Jan. 28.-Yesterday throughout the Kingdom all places of worship held services in memory of Queen Victoria. At St. Pauls' Cathedral there was an unsual scene. Before 9 o'clock in the morning an enormous crowd, wholly attired in black, streamed from all directions to the vast edifice and by 19 o'clock it was packed. Thousands, unable to obtain admission, stood vainly waiting on the steps and around listening to the low organ strains and muffled peal.

> The service began at half past 10. The most Reverend Frederick Temple, Primate and Archbishop of Canterbury, preached a Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 27.—This morning Emperor William received from the hands of the Duke of Connaught his sword on his appointment as a Field Marshal of the British Army in the presence of the householders of King Edward and the dead Queen, as well as a number of British and German naval officers. His Majesty expressed great delight at the appointment, He will entertain King Edward and the members of the royal family at tea on the imperial yacht Hohensollern.

To-day he celebrated his birthday at Osborne and received congratulations from members of the German Embassy in London. SWORD FOR THE KAISER.

SERVICES AT NEW YORK.

New York, Jan. 21.—Many of the sermons delivered at the various churches in this city to-day were in memory of the late Queen Victoria, and eulogistic of her character. Several churches held regular memorial exercises. The Reverend Doctor Morgan Dix of Trinity devoted the greater part of his sermon to the late Queen, and the Reverend Doctor George Vandwater of St. Andrews's Protestant Episcopal Church delivered a eulogy as a prelude in his morning service. The Reverend Doctor Chase H. Eaton of the Church of the Divine Paternity; the Reverend Doctor Abbott E. Kittredge of the Madison Avenue Reformed Church; the Reverend Doctor S. P. Cabman of the Central Metropolitan Temple; the Reverend Doctor Donald Sage MacKay of the Fifth Avenue College; the Reverend Doctor David G. Wyile of the Scotch Presbyterian, and the Reverend Doctor S. MacArthur of Calvary Baptist, all devoted their entire sermons to eulogies of the Queen.

PRINCIPAL RATHBUN

Assisted Physician to Escape Quarantine After Having Been Exposed to Smallpox.

Appleton, Wis., Jan. 27.—Doctor Rodermund, the physician who, to support his theory of noncontagion of disease, deliberately spread smallpox contagion in this city, broke quarantine Saturday evening, eluded the officers and, aided by H. W. Rathbun, principal of a business college, drove to Waupsca and took a train to Chicago. Rathbun returned to-night and was arrested and put in the pesthouse. He will be prosecuted, as well as Rodermund also if captured.

Sword of a Field Marshal of the and Archbishop of Canterbury, preached a most touching sermon. There was a similar scene at Westminster Abbey, where all services throughout the day were attended by enormous congregations. The large assemblage in the chapei royal at St. Thomas Palace included Princess Frederick of Hanover, Princess Frances of Teck, a host of titled people, many members of the Cabinet and other distinguished personages. All the Roman Catholic and foreign churches in England held special memorial services. The members of the French Embassy attended the French church and very elaborate services were held at the chapel of Russian Embassy by command of Emperor Nicholas.

Everywhere particular attention was publicated.

Nicholas.

Everywhere particular attention was paid to the musical portion of the service. At Lincoln's Inn Chapel Brahms's "Requium" was performed.

The venerable William MacDonald Sinciair. Archdeacon of London and Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral presched a commemorative discourse at Canterbury Cathedral.

FIVE-GORED PETTICOAT.

Nice Design for a Miss's Under skirt. This dainty underskirt is made of fine white cambric and prettily trimmed with figurees of Valenciennes lace, headed by flounces of Valenciennes lace, neaded by narrow insertion.

The petticoat is shaped with five gores, a narrow front, wide sides and full backs, which are gathered at the upper edge.

The shallow yoke extends in a point at the front and fastens in the center back, where the closing is made. The skirt is arranged on the yoke, which is machine stitched at the upper and lower edges.

8174-MISSES' FIVE GORED SKIRT. 12, 14 and 16 years.

Siik, sateen, nainsook, muslin, moreen, percaline or nearsilk is used for petticoats in this style, lace or ribbon being appropriate trimmings. For cold weather the skirt may be lined throughout and finished wich plainings, ruffles or bands of lace insertion. Narrow lace beading run through with baby ribbon, having occasional rosettes distributed at the top of the flounces, is seen on the more elaborate productions.

To make the petticoat for a miss 16 years old will require two and one-quarter yards of thirty-six-inch material, seven and one-half yards of embroidery for ruffles and two and three-quarter yards of insertion. The pattern, No. Siri, is cut in sizes for misses 12, 14 and 15 years.
